

Risk Assessments

Why do you need it?

It is a legal requirement that a company conducts risk assessments for all of its significant activities and so you must have them. We offer our services in creating specific risk assessments to your undertakings in the event that you do not have anyone who is suitably trained and competent to do these within your organisation

Who is it for?

All companies who wish to outsource their risk assessments

Aims:

- Identify principal hazards within the workplace
- Identify the likelihood of that hazard occurring
- Identify current control measures and any additional control measures that are required to reduce the risk to an acceptable level

Content

- A comprehensive risk assessment containing all of the hazards that are relevant to your undertakings
- A quantified approach so as to demonstrate understanding of the risks and the effects of the additional control measures implemented in order to reduce the residual risk

What next:

- Training
- Health and Safety Policy
- Health and Safety Audit
